

5th National Adaptation Forum

Baltimore, MD | October 25-27, 2022

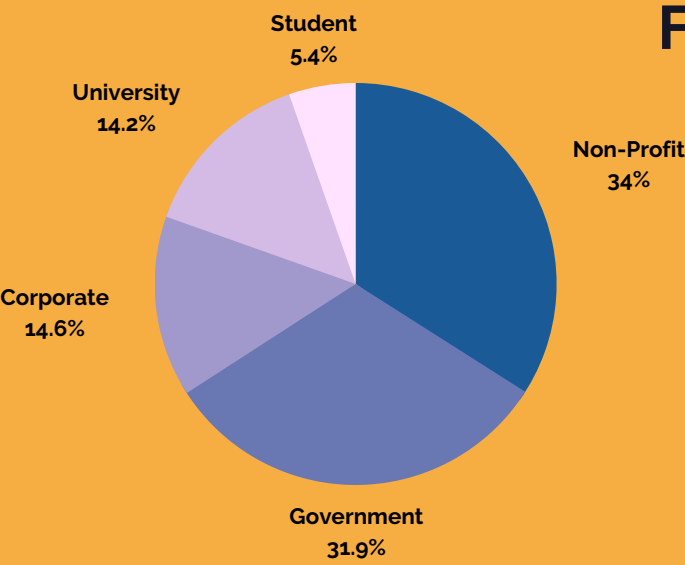

FORUM BY THE NUMBERS

1

FORUM ATTENDANCE

838 attendees

- 45 U.S. states + Washington DC.
- Canada & Puerto Rico
- Germany
- South Africa

Photo Credit (above and below): Kintsugi Kelley-Chung / EcoAdapt

2

PROGRAM

- 60 symposia
- 12 trainings
- 10 working groups
- 8 solutions rooms
- 89 posters
- 21 tools
- 3 working lunches

Opening keynote with Secretary of the Interior, Deb Haaland

3

TRAVEL GUILT OFFSET

Forum attendees raised $1,250 for our travel guilt offset partner, Baltimore Green Space. Baltimore Green Space promotes vibrant neighborhoods and a healthy environment through land preservation, research, and community advocacy. Community access to green space for food, emotional health, and environmental benefits is crucial to the climate resilience of communities in city landscapes.

Photo Credit: Baltimore Green Space

4

MOST ATTENDED SESSIONS

1. Building equity into climate adaptation planning
2. Pulse check 2022: Are we adapting well and enough? - A symposium on the state of the US adaptation field
3. Moving from facts and fear to storytelling: changing the climate narrative
4. Climate equity indicators - What are they? How do you develop them? How can they be woven into the process of sustainable adaptation?
5. HUD supporting low- and moderate-income communities to build resilient futures
6. Stop Asking Us to Be Resilient: Community Perspectives on the "Resilience" Myth
7. Nature-Based Solutions
8. Climate Displacement, Managed Retreat, and Relocation
9. Resilience Metrics - How States Are Quantifying Adaptation Success
10. Resilience Hubs: A Collaborative Approach to Support Neighborhood-Based Resilience in Marginalized Communities

5

THANKS TO OUR FORUM SPONSORS

6

ATTENDANCE SUPPORT

Over $69,000 in attendance support was provided for Forum attendees to cover travel, registration, lodging, and food costs.

Funding was provided by the Kresge Foundation, the National League of Cities, the Barr Foundation, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and Defenders of Wildlife.